Employees of the Assessor's Office and the members of the Board of Assessors are entitled to regular membership and are not eligible for associate membership. Regular members are eligible to apply for the scholarships offer by Worcester County Assessors Association

Please note the definition of the two types of membership offered by Worcester County Assessor's Association

REGULAR MEMBERSHIP:

All persons elected or appointed and engaged in assessment administration within Worcester County (to include Assessors, Assistant Assessors and Clerks) shall be eligible for regular membership upon payment of annual dues.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP:

Any person employed by a municipality not entitled to regular membership shall be eligible for associate membership.

Any person employed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or the United States Government and whose work is concerned with the tax assessment laws shall be eligible for associate membership.

Any person who has retired or otherwise terminated his official position or employment in or with a municipality or other government agency and who has been a regular member or associate member, and who is not employed in a manner related to assessment administration as a consultant, appraiser or other capacity with real estate taxes which would otherwise qualify him/her for membership, shall be eligible for associate membership.
